Executive Summary

Route.ng is a fintech platform capitalizing on the Apple Gift Card arbitrage market between Nigeria and international markets. We connect partners who purchase Apple Gift Cards locally with our established international redemption network, enabling partners to earn consistent daily income while we generate revenue through favorable cross-border exchange margins.

We are seeking $15,000 USD in growth capital to scale our operations, onboard more partners, and increase transaction volume. In return, we offer a 5% monthly return on investment, backed by our proven business model and consistent cash flow.

Key Highlights:

- Established operational platform with active users
- Proven revenue model with positive unit economics
- Low customer acquisition cost through referral system
- Scalable technology infrastructure already built
- Clear path to profitability and investor returns
- Already a booming business in Uyo, Nigeria

Company Overview

What is Route.ng?

Route.ng is a digital platform that facilitates Apple Gift Card arbitrage transactions. Our platform serves as an intermediary between:

1. iOS Users (Partners): Individuals who purchase Apple Gift Cards using their bank accounts
2. Managers: Team leaders who recruit, train, and oversee iOS users
3. Administration: Our team that verifies transactions, manages payouts, and maintains platform operations

How It Currently Works

1. Partners receive funding to purchase Apple Gift Cards
2. Partners buy cards through their registered bank accounts
3. Redemption codes are verified through our automated system
4. Partners earn a commission per successful transaction
5. Route.ng earns margin on the cross-border exchange differential

Our Improved Model (Refund System)

To protect against losses from scammers and dishonest users, we are transitioning to a Refund System:

1. Partners use their own funds to purchase Apple Gift Cards
2. Partners submit redemption codes through our platform
3. Codes are verified through our automated system
4. Upon verification, partners receive full refund + commission within hours

5. Route.ng earns margin on the international exchange differential

Why Refund Over Funding:

- Eliminates risk of partners absconding with funding
- Partners have skin in the game, ensuring genuine transactions
- Faster scaling without capital tied up in trust-building periods
- Attracts serious, committed partners only

The Market Opportunity

The Arbitrage Gap

The real opportunity lies in the price difference of Apple Gift Cards across country borders. This creates a gap for arbitrage and exchange that can be highly profitable when executed correctly.

The Challenge: To capitalize on this opportunity, you need:

- Access to the right people to trade with safely
- A trusted network to avoid getting scammed
- Consistent deal flow to make meaningful income

Our Solution: Route.ng provides:

- A vetted community of traders actively transacting daily
- Secure verification systems to prevent fraud
- Consistent opportunities that put money back in the hands of ordinary Nigerians
- Infrastructure that handles the complexity of cross-border transactions

Why This Matters

- Untapped Potential: Many Nigerians with smartphones and bank accounts lack access to these arbitrage opportunities
- Community Access: We provide entry into a trading community that would otherwise require extensive networking and trust-building
- Daily Income: Partners can earn consistent daily income through our structured transaction system
- Proven Market: Already a booming business in Uyo, with strong organic growth

Business Model

Revenue Generation

Our profit comes from the transaction spread between Nigerian gift card purchases and international market redemption. After breaking it down to pay partners and operational costs, we are still able to provide 5% monthly returns for our investors.

The international demand for Nigerian-sourced gift cards, combined with favorable exchange rates, creates a sustainable margin that benefits all stakeholders:

- Partners earn daily commissions
- Operations are fully funded
- Investors receive consistent monthly returns
